1. Introduction for Candidates

You are undertaking a course that leads to a nationally regulated qualification awarded by the Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body (CPCAB) – the only nationally regulated awarding body to specialise in the field of counselling and supervision.

This qualification is designed for learners who wish to develop their knowledge and understanding of substance misuse in order to:

- Raise awareness of substance misuse and its consequences.
- Improve the knowledge, awareness, understanding and effectiveness of those currently working in the field of substance misuse or supporting people involved in substance misuse.
- Work to prevent substance misuse.

This qualification contributes to a specialist area of counselling and the knowledge gained would be useful in a variety of settings, both professional, paraprofessional and personal.

2. Qualification Structure

This qualification is made up of 7 learning outcomes and associated assessment criteria. This structure is based on the 7 processes of the CPCAB's Model.

Tip:

Think of the assessment criteria as learning tasks which you must complete and then record so that your trainer can see you have achieved the task.

To achieve the qualification, you MUST be internally assessed by your trainer as Proficient in all 7 learning outcomes in order to achieve the qualification.

This qualification is eligible for fully in-person, blended or online delivery.

3. Internal Assessment

Art students keep a portfolio of their coursework which they use to show other people what they, as artists, have learnt. In a similar way you need to keep a portfolio of your coursework, which you can use to show your trainer what you have learnt. Keeping a portfolio of your coursework will not only provide your trainer with evidence of your learning, but also really help you with the learning process itself.

You also need to complete your Candidate Learning Record \(CLR\), which should be placed at the front of your portfolio to signpost the evidence for each assessment criterion. The CLR has brief notes beside each assessment criterion to help you understand what is being asked for and guidelines on how to record your learning.

You must give one piece of documentary evidence (in your CLR) for each assessment criteria: ¹

Documents – You must include the regular exploration of your learning, called the learning review, which contains your thoughts, feelings and reflections on the input, discussions, experiences and readings for the course. You begin this right at the beginning of the course. You must also include an assignment such as an essay as directed by your centre, and tutorial records.

- See USM-L2 Specification for a summary of minimum assessment requirements.
- See the CPCAB film on How to build a student portfolio.

CPCAB recommends that you attach a Criteria Assessment Sheet \(CAS\) to any work you hand in to your trainer for assessment. Your trainer can use the CAS to tell you which criteria you have met and to give you helpful feedback throughout the course. In this way you can gradually collect evidence as you go along and keep track of what evidence you still need to look out for.

Tip:

Meeting criteria is important, but the overall learning experience should not be criteria driven. The journey is as important as the destination.

After you have completed your portfolio your trainer will look at the evidence you have referenced in your Candidate Learning Record \(CLR\) and assess whether or not you have completed the assessment criteria, achieved the learning outcomes and met all the other qualification requirements. They may well decide that you are not yet Proficient – and will identify what you still need to complete/achieve and how you might work towards doing this.

- Your trainer will give you further guidance on developing your portfolio, the three types of coursework and filling in the Candidate Learning Record.

The final assessment of your work is recorded on the Completion Statement at the end of your Candidate Learning Record.

Tip:

It is important to realise that simply presenting evidence to meet criteria may not be sufficient to meet the overall learning outcomes and/or the qualification requirements. Your trainer may have observed substantive evidence which indicates that a specific assessment criterion or learning outcome has not been met despite evidence you have submitted.

¹ Please note that if it's appropriate you can reference the same section of their portfolio, or the same piece of work, a number of times.

Please note that all the work you include in your portfolio is assessable material, so it may be seen not just by your trainer but also by all those involved in your training centre's internal assessment process or any associated appeal or complaint. Such people will include the internal moderator and verifier as part of internal quality assurance (IQA) as well as the CPCAB external verifier.

4. Equal Opportunities and Reasonable Adjustments

In order to make sure that assessment is fair to all candidates, CPCAB requires all registered centres to have an effective candidate support system in place and to make appropriate arrangements to meet individual assessment needs. You can ensure that your own learning and assessment needs are being met by discussing your own needs/difficulties with your trainer, who can ensure that you receive the appropriate support at your centre. Please talk to your centre prior to your enrolment and about any additional support that you may need regarding learning and assessment.

Please see CPCAB's Reasonable Adjustment Guidance for Centres.

Both CPCAB and centres are required to recognise and comply with both the spirit and the word of equal opportunities legislation. Previous Acts were amalgamated into the Equality Act 2010.

See CPCAB's Equal Opportunities Policy.

5. Appeals and Complaints

CPCAB are committed to maintaining standards across our recognised centres so that the public can have confidence in us and our qualifications. We provide our own complaints and appeals policies for the benefit of centres and candidates.

Please view our policies on Complaints, Appeals and Whistleblowing on the CPCAB website.

All CPCAB approved centres are required to have a complaints and appeals procedure which is available to candidates. Candidates must address all appeals about internal assessment or complaints about any aspect of their learning experience on the course via the centre's own internal complaints and appeals procedures. It is the centre's responsibility to make these procedures available to candidates.

Candidates who contact CPCAB directly on these issues will normally be directed back to their centre.

7. Candidate Feedback

Your feedback is vital to CPCAB to ensure the ongoing quality of our qualifications. Feedback enables us to meet our requirements as a regulated Awarding Organisation and contributes towards our annual qualification review process. Please ensure that you complete the online feedback survey at the conclusion of your course.
